

Section Committee	Director	Company	Email	Duties	Partnering Committees	Committee Members
Public Relations/Hospitality	Vacant			Contacts editors of local newspaper and offers Section services as informational resource on technical issues - Prepares articles, or collects background information for articles on highway related subjects, and submits them to local publications - Establish a speaker's bureau to address local audience on highway related subjects. - Promotes radio and TV appearances in conjunction with Section meetings, Engineer's Week, legislative dinners or other special occasions that would focus media attention on Section activities - Gives audiovisual presentations before local audiences on highway related issues - Coordinates directly with the Newsletter Director to provide information for the newsletter - Publicizes actions on issues of mutual interest with other highway industry organizations - Presents awards to individuals or organizations - Solicits the engineering viewpoint on specific issues of local interest, such as design/build, partnering, ITS, construction management and codes. - Keeps public informed about the engineering viewpoint and actions through public statement and news releases - Coordinates directly with the Media Director to provide information to be published on social media - Provide reports at each Board meeting	- Media - Newsletter	Seats Available